OVERVIEW

David is a partner of the law firm of Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP and is head of the firm's Non Profit Sector Team.

Areas of Practice

David provides general business and tax advice to educational, public and religious charities such as Childhelp USA, the American Film Institute, Aids Project Los Angeles, Catholic Charities of Los Angeles, Mission Without Borders, Foundation for Global Sports Development and others. His work includes: (i) preparing applications on behalf of these Not-for-Profit entities for tax exemptions and non-profit status under federal and state tax guidelines; (ii) giving ongoing advice to prevent jeopardizing their non-profit status; (iii) helping non-profits to joint venture on projects with other non-profits as well as for profit entities; (iv) dealing with excess benefit and private inurement issues; (v) handling all aspects of unrelated business taxation issues; (vi) drafting donation and sponsorship agreements; (vii) providing guidance on non-profit governance and appropriate director and officer conduct, including compliance and disclosure issues; and (viii) reviewing Director & Officers liability and insurance issues.

David is actively involved with a non-profit organization, Foundation for Global Sports Development, that works closely with the International Olympic Committee and a variety of International Sports Federations on global sports development projects. David was also actively involved in researching the use of performance-enhancing substances by former East German athletes and contributed to a book on the subject called Faust's Gold.

David has extensive experience in the structuring of corporate reorganizations, including mergers, stock for stock exchanges, corporate spin-offs and shareholder redemptions, as well as the tax treatment of "S" corporations. He has handled all aspects of partnership and limited liability company taxation including formation and dissolution of partnerships and LLC's, drafting partnership and LLC agreements, merging of partnerships and tax treatment of partners, and LLC members in transactions with their companies.
