EXPERIENCE

Mr. Cronthall has been lead trial counsel in numerous trials in state and federal courts. A representative sample of trials include:

Bonded Motors v. State Compensation Insurance Fund - Los Angeles Superior Court - obtained favorable result after seven week jury trial involving alleged bad faith and unfair business practices involving state's largest workers' compensation insurer.

Cumbre v. State Compensation Insurance Fund - San Bernardino Superior Court - Obtained defense verdict after five week jury trial in which brokers sought $47 million in damages for termination of agreements.

Geosource, Inc. v. The Hartford - Los Angeles Superior Court - Obtained judgment after trial in lawsuit involving an insurer's right to control the settlement of disputes.

Hinduja v. ARCO - Los Angeles Superior Court - Obtained defense verdict after jury trial in case involving claims of unfair business practices, violations of franchise laws and discrimination. Handled appeal, which resulted in affirmance of verdict, and judgment for attorney's fees incurred by client.

Mouradian v. Central National Life Insurance Company - Los Angeles Superior Court - obtained defense judgment after jury trial in bad faith case arising out of insurer's rescission of policy due to misrepresentations by insured.

Scott's Creations, Inc. v. Underwriters at Lloyd's, London - Los Angeles Superior Court - obtained defense verdict by proving that claimed armed theft of wholesale jeweler's inventory was a staged crime. Selected as one of the top ten defense verdicts of 2006.

Tricor v. State Compensation Insurance Fund - Los Angeles Superior Court - obtained favorable verdict in action involving the workers' compensation system, and regulation of the industry.

United Pacific v. Cohanin - Los Angeles Superior Court - obtained judgment for insurer in insurance coverage matter involving limits of liability.

The Walton Companies v. Etiwanda Estates - San Bernardino Superior Court - obtained defense verdict in lawsuit involving construction of a residential development.

Wolfe Air Aviation v. Andreini & Co., et al - Los Angeles Superior Court (transferred to Orange County Superior Court for trial) - obtained $10 million jury verdict and judgment for client in case involving cancellation of aviation insurance policy. Amount of judgment was almost double the amount of damages calculated by client's expert witness.
