Angela Reid is an associate in the Business Trial Practice Group in the firm's Los Angeles office. She is a member of the firm's Recruiting Committee, and is actively involved in the firm's Diversity and Inclusion Attorney Network and Pro Bono efforts. She also serves as the firm's representative for the Young Lawyers Division of the Association of Business Trial Lawyers (ABTL), and is Co-Chair of the firm's Los Angeles Women Lawyers Group.

Areas of Practice

Angela represents clients with complex business disputes. She has litigated claims in both state and federal court involving breach of contract, fraud, unfair competition, false advertising, the Consumer Legal Remedies Act ("CLRA"), breach of fiduciary duty, unlawful detainer, shareholder actions, trade secret disputes and other business torts in several industries. She has experience with all aspects of civil procedure including, filing and responding to complaints, conducting discovery, e-discovery, motion practice, judgment enforcement and appellate practice.

Prior to joining Sheppard Mullin, Angela conducted Business Development for corporations in the fields of Activated Carbon, Industrial Tires, and Third-Party Logistics. During law school, she served as an extern to the Honorable Deborah J. Saltzman, at the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California.
