Brian Kim is an associate in the Real Estate, Land Use and Environmental Practice Group in the firm's Los Angeles office.

Areas of Practice

Brian helps lenders, real estate investors and developers maximize their debt and equity real estate investments. He has significant experience representing clients with respect to the leasing, acquisition, development and disposition of office, retail, residential, senior housing, hospitality, industrial and mixed-use projects across the country.

Brian represents lenders and borrowers in lending transactions, including real estate acquisition financings, construction loans, loan assumptions, loan modifications and refinancings. He also represents national financial institutions in senior secured and unsecured credit facilities, cross-border financings and other leveraged finance and cash flow transactions.
