Nancy Brandel is a senior attorney in the Real Estate Land Use and Environmental and Finance and Bankruptcy Practice Groups in the firm's Los Angeles office.

Areas of Practice

Nancy principally represents financial institutions in connection with financings secured by commercial real estate including office, retail, industrial, multi-family and mixed-use projects.

Nancy often negotiates and documents real estate secured financings, including construction, renovation, bridge and permanent loans and unsecured loan financings in single lender and syndicated loan transactions. Her experience includes managing and documenting loans to single and multiple borrowers, secured by complex real estate assets in single and multiple states as well as loans secured by loan portfolios.

Nancy also has substantial experience in commercial leasing, property management and property acquisitions and dispositions.
