Suzanne Badawi is special counsel in the Business Trial Practice Group in the firm's Los Angeles office. She is a member of the firm's Insurance Litigation Team.

Areas of Practice

Suzanne is an insurance attorney who litigates disputes in state and federal courts and provides insurance companies with coverage advice. She primarily focuses on insurance law, including bad faith litigation and coverage in both the first- and third-party contexts.

Suzanne manages cases from inception of litigation through trial or other disposition. She has achieved successful results in numerous lawsuits involving claims of insurance bad faith, breach of contract, fraud and negligence. In addition, she advises insurance companies regarding coverage, policy interpretation and policy drafting. Suzanne's approach is to litigate cases successfully and cost effectively, with regular communication, to ensure that client objectives are met.

Suzanne is an appointed member of the California State Bar's Cal Bar Affinity Committee on Professional Liability Insurance, which administers the bar-sponsored lawyers Errors & Omissions insurance program. She was selected for Fellowship in the Litigation Counsel of America (LCA), Trial Lawyer Honorary Society. The LCA is a trial lawyer honorary society whose membership is limited to less than one-half of one percent of American lawyers. Fellows are selected based upon effectiveness and accomplishment in litigation, both at the trial and appellate levels, and superior ethical reputation.

Suzanne also frequently lectures on legal ethics, professional liability law and insurance law in California.

Honors

- Fellow, Litigation Counsel of America (LCA), The Trial Lawyer Honorary Society
