The Veterans group at Sheppard Mullin consists of attorneys and staff who are military veterans and/or individuals with immediate family members who currently serve or formerly served in the armed forces.

The Veterans group strives to positively impact the veteran community by encouraging Sheppard Mullin attorneys and staff to participate in pro bono projects that serve veterans and their families; fostering the success and development of veterans in the legal field; leading outreach initiatives to serve veterans in the community; raising awareness of topics, experiences, and skills unique to veterans; participating in job fairs and events designed to integrate veterans into the workforce; and partnering with clients and other organizations to serve the needs of veterans. The group is led by partners Jason Mueller, Jon Newby, Michael Driscoll, associate Brittany Walter and Chief Security Officer Quincey Collins.
