Teamwork is critical to any success. We'll explore this concept in an intimate discussion with seasoned technology industry team leaders who will share their perspectives on the triumphs and pitfalls of building, motivating and leading a start-up team. This discussion will cover team characteristics and dynamics, incentives, equity and otherwise, and creating the passion for excellence in product development.

The interactive discussion will be led by SVB's Jack Garza and Sheppard Mullin's Stephanie Zeppa, with David Ulevitch (Cisco), Arjun Chopra (FLOODGATE), Curtis Lee (Luxe) and Aaron Bell (AdRoll). We hope you can join us for a broad discussion on building teams and products, leading vs. managing people, loving life, and doing the right thing.
