Medicare Advantage represents a market segment poised for continued growth, even when the only certainty in the market is uncertainty. Health systems, in particular, are well positioned to increase share in Medicare Advantage; however, execution risk can also be high. Join us as our experts discuss strategies for provider-sponsored plans to capitalize on the Medicare Advantage opportunity.

Please join us for breakfast as we cover the following topics:

- Why does Medicare Advantage continue to be an attractive market segment in an uncertain environment?
- Is it the right time to enter the Medicare Advantage health plan market?
- How does Medicare Advantage fit into my senior market strategy for Medicare patients?
- Real world experience from Providence Health Plan
- What is the playbook for starting a Medicare Advantage health plan?
- How can I align the operating model with my strategic objectives?

Speakers:

- Jack Friedman, Former SVP Accountable Care Services & Payer Relations, Providence Health & Services and Former CEO, Providence Health Plan
- Eric Klein, Partner and Healthcare Team Leader, Sheppard Mullin
- Cary Badger, Principal, HealthScape Advisors

Sponsored By:

- Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP
- HealthScape Advisors

Attendees should be C-suite executives from Illinois hospitals or healthcare organizations.
