

ABA Environmental Collaborations: The Legal Mosaic Mixing Environmental Needs and Policies with Antitrust

Teleconference

05.15.2017

Event Sponsor: Joint Conduct, Section of Antitrust Law

This panel intends to start an important conversation about the scientific and policy needs for industry collaboration to achieve environmental goals, together with how antitrust and international competition policies might apply to these ends. Join World Wildlife Fund Vice President, Fisheries Dr. William Fox, United States Department of State attorney Alexis Ortiz and Antitrust Division attorney Samer Musallam for the discussion, lead by Sheppard Mullin partner and VoiceAmerica International Crossroads radio host Michael P.A. Cohen.
