

New Frontiers of Antitrust 2017 Conference

State Aid and Tax Rulings: Is There Really a Competition Issue?

Paris, France

06.26.2017

Event Sponsor: Concurrences Review

Sheppard Mullin Antitrust & Competition Group Co-Chair Jacques Derenne will be speaking at Concurrences' New Frontiers of Antitrust 2017 Conference. Jacques will be part of a panel discussing "State Aid and Tax Rulings: Is There Really a Competition Issue?"

The Paris "New Frontiers of Antitrust" conference is a unique occasion to network with some of today's most influential global leaders in competition law. This conference, held each year in Paris since 2009, now ranks first among the European antitrust independent events in terms of venue, press reports and audience. The 2017 Steering Committee, headed by Frédéric Jenny, includes Prof. Laurence Idot and Nicolas Charbit.

Monday, June 26, 2017

8:30 a.m.-7:00 p.m. CEST

Maison du barreau

Rue de Harlay

75001 Paris

France

Attorneys

Jacques Derenne