About:

The San Diego IEEE Blockchain Group is hosting San Diego's first Blockchain Legal Forum. The Blockchain Legal Forum is an event designed to integrate the fields of law and technology for a discussion about blockchain technology and its effect on legal frameworks and policy.

The event will first feature a networking portion with various technology companies and law firms representing themselves as part of this growing community. Then there will be a panel featuring recognized thought leaders for a discussion on the types of challenges that existing legal frameworks are facing with introduction of blockchain and the types of issues on the horizon.
