

Food and Drug Law Institute's 2019 Enforcement, Litigation and Compliance Conference

Food and Drug law Institute

December 11-12, 2019

Where:

Renaissance Downtown Hotel
999 Ninth St. NW
Washington, DC 20001

Sheppard Mullin Participants:

Michael Paddock, partner

Top Legal and Compliance Threats Facing In-House Counsel and Compliance Officers
December 12, 2019
9:45 a.m. – 10:45 a.m.

Erica Kraus, associate

Health Care Fraud and Big Data
December 12, 2019
12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m.

About:

The annual Enforcement, Litigation, and Compliance Conference brings together industry, regulators, attorneys, litigators, academics, and consultants to discuss trends and issues in enforcement and compliance, the latest developments in both civil and criminal litigation, and recent cases and settlements. This conference offers an opportunity to hear from and interact with top officials from FDA, DOJ, FTC, and other government agencies.

Attendees will:

- Explore the latest trends behind enforcement actions in food, drugs, biologics, medical devices, and tobacco
- Gain practical tips and best practices for responding to enforcement action by FDA or other government agencies
- Learn how to comply with new and upcoming FDA rules and regulations
- Hear about top issues, priorities, and goals for 2020 directly from ORA and FDA's Center Compliance Directors

For more information or to register, click here.

Attorneys

Erica J. Kraus

Michael W. Paddock

Practice Areas

Healthcare

Industries

Life Sciences