Anatomy of a Bid Protest

03.07.2012

Please join Partners John Chierichella and Anne Perry for a pragmatic examination of the bid protest process, focused on advance planning for the prosecution and defense of protests, the identification of protest issues, the timeliness rules, forum selection, the Protective Order process, how and when it affects your ability to engage expert consultants and to communicate with your counsel, and an examination of the latest protest statistics both in the Court of Federal Claims and at the GAO.
