Year after year, WasteExpo is the industry's largest conference and tradeshow of its kind, serving both the public and private sectors. And this year, they're offering more.

More exhibitors: Solution providers are constantly innovating, and they're ready to bring you their latest and greatest at WasteExpo 2014 – to help you do your job even better! Your Exhibit Hall experience will be even more robust in Atlanta with new pavilions, show floor tours, a presentation theater and more.

More education: Last year, they successfully added a Composting/Organics Track, a C&D Workshop, a Matchmaking Program, a Show Floor Presentation Theater, and an Investor Summit – and there's even more to come in 2014. You'll walk away with actionable insights and useful ideas you can implement right away.

More solutions: No other event comes close to WasteExpo's size and scope. The event is designed to help you solve problems, from what's keeping you up at night to how to improve your bottom line or cut expenses. Nowhere else can you benefit your business or department so much in four short days!

More connections: Networking opportunities let you meet colleagues from around the corner and around the world – connecting you with industry resources you can call on 24/7.

In addition, Sheppard Mullin Partner Ed Schiff will be a speaker on a business and professional skill panel titled "What's My Company Worth?" on Wednesday, April 30th.
