This is the Founders Space Big Data Event of the Year -- covering everything you need to know about big data. We'll have a panel of top big data experts & VCs. Also, we're delighted to have David Feinleib, angel investor and author of Big Data Bootcamp, as our guest and speaker.

- Bruce Cleveland, Interwest Capital
- Jon Feiber, Mohr Davidow Ventures
- David Feinleib, Data Guru & Angel Investor
- And more!

We'll go in depth on all aspects of Big Data:

- Why is big data critical to every startup?
- How to best monetize your data?
- Who are the players in big data?
- How to pitch your data to investors?
- Which technologies are critical to understand?
- What lies in the future of big data?

You don't want to miss this event!
