

U.S. - Cuba Corporate Counsel Summit

Convene Old Slip, New York
03.24.2015

Your essential guide to the legal and regulatory challenges facing US organizations entering the Cuban market

Tourism. Aviation. Infrastructure. Hospitality. Agriculture. Food. Retail – Every industry will have its own set of Cuban regulatory hurdles that will need to be overcome in order for U.S. businesses to successfully stake a claim. Momentum's U.S. – Cuba Corporate Counsel Summit will bring together GC's from major US corporations charged with the task of navigating through the regulatory landscape. They will be joined by outside counsel from the US and Cuba who have the expertise they need. Drawing lessons from European and Asian companies already operating in Cuba, you will receive a detailed strategic roadmap and essential network which will enable their organizations to chart a path to success.

Hear from J. Scott Maberry, Partner, Sheppard Mullin Richter & Hampton LLP on the Current Status of US-Cuba Export, Trade and Travel Regulations. Benefit from a top line overview of the recently revised regulations issued by the U.S. Department of the Treasury, Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") and the U.S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of Industry and Security ("BIS") easing the long standing trade and travel restrictions with Cuba.
