Please join us for Sheppard Mullin's annual "Breakfast with Your Labor Lawyer." 2015 presents significant developments in California labor and employment laws. We will explain how these new developments will affect day-to-day decisions, and provide practical advice for employers on how to respond and protect themselves from liability in the workplace. The topics covered will include updates on the following:

- California's new mandatory paid sick leave law—notice, compliance and how to calculate mandatory accruals that start on July 1, 2015
- Wage and hour updates, including new interpretations of meal and rest period requirements, as well as increases to minimum wage rates for exemption purposes and minimum wage hikes for contractors
- Updates in the arbitration arena and Private Attorneys' General Act ("PAGA") litigation
- NLRB on the move with more employee protections, including employee right to use company e-mail system to organize and discuss workplace conditions
- Discrimination, harassment and retaliation cases
- Region-specific hot topics, including the San Francisco Retail Workers' Bill of Rights, the Bay Area Commuter Benefits Program and the Los Angeles Living Wage Ordinance

Our attorneys will be available after the presentation to answer all of your legal questions.

If you have colleagues who share your interest in this topic, please invite them to attend with you. There is no cost to attend, and there is much to be gained.

We look forward to seeing you for this informative, engaging and interactive seminar.
