03.03.2021

Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP is pleased to announce that San Diego partner Alejandro ("Alex") Moreno has been selected as the firm's 2021 Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) Fellow. LCLD's landmark program identifies, trains, and advances the next generation of leaders in the legal profession. Moreno is Sheppard Mullin's 11th LCLD Fellow.

"Alex joins a group of incredible partners who are former LCLD Fellows, including our current Diversity & Inclusion Committee Chair Rena Andoh and Executive Committee member Alfred Fraijo, Jr.," said Sheppard Mullin chairman Guy Halgren. "Alex exemplifies all of the best qualities that the next generation of legal industry leaders will need to successfully guide law firms."

According to LCLD President Robert J. Grey, Jr., the LCLD Fellows Program offers participants "a year-long, in-depth program devoted to relationship-building, in-person training, peer-group projects, and extensive contact with LCLD's top leadership and the best teachers in the business."

Moreno is a partner in the Business Trial practice group and represents clients in commercial litigation in state and federal courts. He is also experienced in private dispute resolution and arbitration, including FINRA arbitration, and has succeeded on behalf of his clients after full arbitration and brokered favorable pre-arbitration settlements. Moreno represents clients in the banking and finance, mortgage, cannabis, hospitality, technology and telecommunications, restaurant and franchise, energy and extraction, and healthcare industries. He defends consumer class actions, securities litigation and shareholder derivative suits, cross-border litigation, and litigation for high-net-worth individuals and companies with a need for Spanish speaking counsel. Moreno lived in Mexico and Spain for two decades and applies his familiarity with Latin American culture to successfully solve legal disputes for Latin American clients. As part of his pro bono work, Moreno has successfully resolved guardianship and immigration matters. He received his B.A., high honors, from the University of California, Santa Barbara; his LL.M. Commercial Law, from the University of Cambridge (King's College); and his J.D. from Harvard Law School.
