

Huawei Blocked

Sky Business News

05.20.2019

Partner Reid Whitten joined “Ian King Live” to discuss Google’s ban on supplying software and services to Huawei following the Trump Administration’s decision to add Huawei Technologies to Entity List, which is essentially a trade blacklist. Reid added that Google had no choice but to comply with the order, which restricts any US-based or non-US based company from exporting US goods, technology and software to companies on the Entity List, such as Huawei.

Practice Areas

Government Contracts, Investigations & International Trade