

Award of More Than $100 Million in Patent Case Could Be Largest-Ever Against Federal Government

National Law Review

10.25.2021

Lawyers from Sheppard Mullin secured the award for SecurityPoint Media in a case over a patented technology, used without authorization by the federal government, at airport-security checkpoints in a case litigated for a decade.

Attorneys

Laura M. Burson

Bradley C. Graveline

Practice Areas

Intellectual Property

Patent Litigation

Industries

Transportation