Alex Merritt is a partner in the Real Estate, Energy, Land Use & Environmental Practice Group in the firm's San Francisco office.

Areas of Practice

Alex's practice focuses on land use and land use litigation. He represents property owners and developers through all phases of the development process, including due diligence, entitlements, CEQA compliance, land use litigation, and project implementation.

Entitlements & CEQA Compliance—advising on CEQA compliance and obtaining entitlements and approvals for controversial development projects, with a focus on retail, commercial, and industrial projects.

Public Lands—advising on compliance with public land laws; representing landowners before the Interior Board of Land Appeals (IBLA); and litigating public lands cases in district court.

Land Use Litigation—representing developers in cases brought under CEQA, planning and zoning laws, housing laws, and the subdivision map act.

Real Estate Litigation—litigating a variety of real estate matters, including actions involving quiet title, partition, eminent domain, easements, and HOA disputes.

Experience
