

→ Brian M. Daucher

Partner

650 Town Center Drive
Tenth Floor
Costa Mesa, CA 92626

T: +1.714.424.2843

F: +1.714.513.5130

bdaucher@sheppardmullin.com

Brian M. Daucher is a partner in the Business Trial and Intellectual Property Practice Groups in the Firm's Orange County Office.

Areas of Practice

Mr. Daucher specializes in business and intellectual property litigation with emphasis on trade secret, unfair competition, trademark, copyright, and patent disputes. Mr. Daucher has represented clients in a wide range of industries including technology, consumer products, fiduciary services, food and alcohol, sports marketing and equipment, health care, entertainment, and energy. In addition, Mr. Daucher helps clients develop, protect, and exploit their intellectual property portfolios.

Mr. Daucher has represented a variety of large and small businesses including Taylor Made Golf Company, Eveready Battery Company, E&J Gallo Winery, Iron Grip Barbell Company, adidas-Salomon, General Electric Capital Corporation, Wells Fargo Bank, Comerica Bank, LaSalle Business Credit, Bank of America, Alcatel, Daewoo Motor America, Cambrex Corporation, Northern Trust, and Graver Technologies (a Marmon Group subsidiary).

Professional Qualifications and Activities

Mr. Daucher is licensed in California and admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Southern, Central, Eastern and Northern Districts of California and also before the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals.

Mr. Daucher is a member of the Orange County Bar Association, litigation and intellectual property divisions.

Events

What Happens if You Get Sued? Litigation Basics
Third Thursday Emerging Company Webinar Series
via WebEx, 07.17.2014

What Happens If You Get Sued - Litigation Basics
Third Thursday Emerging Company Webinar
WebEx, 12.15.2011

Practices

Litigation

Healthcare

Intellectual Property

Industries

Financial Services

Healthcare