

→ Christine L. Doyle

Special Counsel
650 Town Center Drive
Tenth Floor
Costa Mesa, CA 92626

T: +1.714.424.2853
F: +1.714.428.5970
CDoyle@sheppardmullin.com

Christine L. Doyle is Special Counsel in the Labor and Employment Practice Group in the firm's Orange County office.

Areas of Practice

Christine has experience in a broad range of immigration law, with a focus on employment-based immigrant and nonimmigrant visa petitions. She has numerous years of experience counseling employers and their employees on U.S. immigration, global immigration, and I-9 compliance matters.

Articles

French Desk Law Blog

- "U.S. Visas for Ukrainians and Russians: Navigating the Maze," March 11, 2022
- "NIE's Now Good for 1 Year, More on Navigating the Travel Ban Jungle: National Interest Exception Checklist for the U.S. COVID Travel Bans," July 20, 2021
- "Navigating the Travel Ban Jungle: National Interest Exception Checklist for the U.S. COVID Travel Bans," July 1, 2021
- "U.S. Embassy in Paris Substantially Limits the Eligibility of National Interest Exemptions for Foreign Travelers," March 3, 2021

Labor & Employment Law Blog Posts

- "DHS Announces That Employers Should Continue to Use the Current I-9 Form After the Oct 31, 2022, Expiration," October 12, 2022
- "Sheppard Mullin Travel Checklist - New Vaccination Travel Restrictions for Entry Into the United States: Air and Land Rules Effective November 8, 2021," November 2, 2021

Latin American Blog

- "Annual H-1B Visa Lottery Will Open on March 1, 2022," February 7, 2022

Practices

Immigration

Immigration

Labor and Employment

Education

J.D., Pepperdine University, 2006

B.A., Boston College, 2000

Clerkships

Extern, Los Angeles Immigration Court, Department of Justice

Admissions

California