Carter is an associate in the Corporate Practice Group in the firm's New York office and a member of the firm's Healthcare industry team.

Areas of Practice

Carter advises healthcare organizations on a wide range of matters, including transactional, operational, and strategic endeavors. He regularly manages transactions of all types, including mergers & acquisitions, joint ventures, and strategic alliances. His work experience includes representation of provider groups, managed health care organizations, value-based and risk-based organizations, not-for-profit and for-profit health systems, digital health platforms, management services organizations, independent practice organizations, and integrated health delivery systems.

With expertise in virtual care, value-based contracting, and care coordination, Carter is able to assist clients at all stages of maturity as they pursue cutting-edge initiatives. Carter advises on an array of complex strategic ventures in the ever-changing healthcare industry, and often represents healthcare organizations on regional and national expansion in compliance with state-by-state corporate practice of medicine frameworks, acquisitions of new lines of business, and entry into or adoption of value-based or risk-based contracting, including through payor-provider partnerships and partnerships with risk-based and managed care entities.
