Krista S. Johnson is a special counsel in the Labor & Employment practice group in the firm's San Francisco office.

Areas of Practice

Krista advises and represents management clients in employment and labor litigation, focusing on employment class actions and harassment and wrongful termination lawsuits. In addition, Krista uses her extensive knowledge of and experience in employment and labor laws to provide practical and effective advice to management regarding employment law compliance, wage and hour laws, and workplace investigations.

She also was a member of the University of Southern California Law School Hale Moot Court Honors Program.
