About the Fellowship

Diversity, equity and inclusion are core values of Sheppard Mullin. The Diversity Fellowship is named in honor of Chair Emeritus, Guy Halgren, for his longstanding commitment to creating a firm culture that celebrates diversity and promotes equity and inclusion.

As part of our commitment to greater diversity in the legal industry, each year, the firm will award $35,000* to three talented law students who have demonstrated resiliency and grit, and will contribute to the richness and excellence of our firm.

Eligibility

Qualified applicants will meet the following requirements:

- 1L law student enrolled and in good standing at an ABA-accredited law school
- Participation as a summer associate for the full 10 weeks of the upcoming summer program
- Non-recipient of a similar diversity award from another law firm paid during the same period
- Long-term interest in practicing in one of Sheppard Mullin's U.S. offices
- Authorization to work in the United States

Criteria

In evaluating candidates, we will consider the following:

- History of personal, academic, and professional achievement
- Demonstrated commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion within the legal industry and greater community
- Demonstrated ability to overcome significant obstacles in life such as socio-economic disadvantage, disability, being the first in their family to attend college, attending under-resourced schools, or other considerable hardships or challenges
- Demonstrated leadership ability
- Financial need

How and When to Apply

A complete application has the following requirements:

- Resume, undergraduate and law school transcript, and cover letter
- Completion of Sheppard Mullin's Suited assessment

- Personal statement addressing the following questions:
 - Explain the road that you have traveled to get to law school. What experiences were most influential in shaping your desire to become a lawyer?
 - Explain your interest in pursuing a long-term career with Sheppard Mullin
 - Describe how you will continue to advance diversity, equity and inclusion initiatives within the legal industry
- Completion of interview with selection committee
- The application period is now closed
