

AHLA Health Care Transactions

Loews Vanderbilt Hotel, Nashville
Spring 2016

May 17-18, 2016

Featuring speaker Dawn Crumel of Sheppard Mullin with Cindy Reisz of Bass Berry Simms

The The American Health Lawyers Association Health Care Transactions Program is a unique opportunity to learn latest commercial developments, strategies and deal forecasts from noted experts. Gain insight into the business and legal issues involving contemporary health care business transactions, including emerging care models, M&A trends, financing techniques, deal risk management strategies, post integration lessons, and many more. The program will also present a unique opportunity to network with leading health care executives, attorneys, investment bankers, valuation experts and other health care consultants and advisors from across the country, who are recognized deal-makers and shakers in the health care community.
