"Breakfast with Europe" Webinar

Third Thursday of Every Month

8:00 a.m. - 8:30 a.m. PST

Stay tuned on the latest developments in Europe that may affect your business and join Sheppard Mullin's Antitrust & Competition "Breakfast with Europe" drive-time webinars, to be held the third Thursday of each month. European regulation and political developments are increasingly shaping multinational corporate and commercial strategies. U.S.-based companies, particularly those with global reach or ambition, should know the thicket surrounding the latest policies and legal and regulatory developments from across the Atlantic. Join us to hear the latest happenings from the halls of the European Commission and throughout Europe from our Brussels competition experts.

Now that Europe is back, so are we. Please join us for the continuation of our monthly Breakfast with Europe drive-time webcast Thursday, September 21, when we will resume our 30-minute lightning rounds bringing you up to speed on what you need to know about the month back, the present and month forward in European competition law developments. This month's webcast will cover:

1. The historic remand of Intel's $1.26B question to the European lower courts, and implications for dominant players using rebates - Isabelle Rahman
2. Germany closing its "Sausage Gap" – a loophole in cartel fine regulation famously threaded by German sausage maker Tonnie's, to evade millions in cartel fines - Robert Klotz
3. Important clarification by the European authorities regarding notifications and implications surrounding change in sole to joint control of collaborations and ventures - Dimitris Vallindas
