10.17.2018

 The recent overhaul of the U.S. tax code impacts nonprofits significantly, from reducing incentives for charitable giving to taxing certain executive compensation.

Please join us for an interactive discussion of the new federal tax code provisions affecting the way nonprofits do business. Our tax attorneys, Tamar Rosenberg and Michael Chan, as well as Alfred Fraijo in our real estate group, will share the practical knowledge nonprofit leaders and board members need to navigate the new rules, assess your organization's vulnerabilities and help update your business model and strategies to keep your organization financially sound.
