

Municipal Restructurings after COVID-19: State Bankruptcies? What's Next?

Webinar
04.28.2020

The devastation caused by the COVID-19 pandemic has not been limited to the private economy. The finances of every state, city and town have been severely impacted in ways that will not be fully known for many months. What is clear now is that a wave of distressed public debt will soon be crashing across the nation. Please join our distinguished panel of experts as they assess the current outlook and discuss lessons to be learned from the last wave of municipal restructurings.

Update as of 04.22.20 - Mitch McConnell's statement on "opening the door" to state bankruptcies. Our expert panel will outline the state of play and give their views on what might be coming soon in the municipal space.
