Webinar details will be sent upon registration.

Please join us for a presentation that will examine how the new orders may affect your business. We will plan to cover the following issues, but please come ready with your questions:

- What transactions will be prohibited?
- How will U.S. customers and companies communicate or send money to Chinese customers and companies?
- What companies may be required to divest their assets?
- What other effects could this have on U.S.-China business?
