

American Conference Institute's 2nd Annual Paragraph IV Disputes Master Symposium

The Advanced Forum for Brand Name and Generic Counsel on the Intricacies of Extreme Hatch-Waxman Litigation

InterContinental Chicago

Fall 2014

American Conference Institute (ACI) proudly returns to Chicago this fall to present the second iteration of its industry-acclaimed Paragraph IV Disputes Master Symposium. This symposium – a companion to ACI's flagship Paragraph IV Disputes conference which takes place in New York each spring – is an advanced forum where leading Hatch-Waxman litigators representing both brand name and generic pharmaceutical companies will exchange ideas and engage in in-depth audience discussions addressing the complexities, conundrums and challenges which comprise today's Paragraph IV litigation.

September 30 - October 1, 2014

InterContinental, Chicago, IL

Sheppard Mullin Partner Bradley Graveline will be on panel during day 2 of the conference in a workshop titled "The Uncertain Future of At-Risk Launches: A Study of Injunctive Relief, Damages and the Impact of Protonix"

Click here for more details and registration information.

Practice Areas

Intellectual Property

Litigation