

Liisa Thomas Named a Cybersecurity Thought Leader by the National Law Review

National Law Review

12.03.2019

Liisa Thomas, a partner and leader of Sheppard Mullin's Privacy and Cybersecurity Team, was awarded the National Law Review's Go-To Thought Leadership Award in Cybersecurity for her in-depth coverage surrounding cybersecurity legislation at the state, federal and international levels on Sheppard Mullin's Eye on Privacy blog.

According to the National Law Review, "Thomas provides industry standards and benchmarks that are vital for companies and organizations to integrate into their cybersecurity strategy. Her articles consistently cover nuances of the TCPA and other federal statutes and litigation that impact the legal landscape."

The 2019 awards recognized 75 exceptional authors and legal practice groups from around the country for their reporting of complex legislative and litigation news, as well as their strategic insight and overall industry knowledge.
