Partner Sid Fohrman, leader of the firm's Music Industry Team, was named one of Billboard Magazine's 2021 "Top Music Lawyers".

In an excerpt, "Fohrman has worked with high-profile clients like Spotify, Peloton and Vevo. But the recent accomplishment he is most proud of is the pro bono representation of American Song Archives: The Bob Dylan Center and Woody Guthrie Center in connection with the Fire in Little Africa project. The multimedia hip-hop collaboration commemorates the 1921 massacre in Tulsa, Okla.'s Greenwood neighborhood known as Little Africa that "included an exclusive license agreement with Capitol Music Group for release on Motown Records."

According to Sid, the most lasting legacy of 2020 will be "The year live concert streaming broke through – juxtaposed with the reminder that the in-person live concert experience can never be replaced."
