

Three Sheppard Mullin Attorneys Recognized as "Go-To Thought Leaders" by National Law Review

National Law Review

12.29.2021

Partners Peter Carson and Bijal N. Vira and associate Nirav Bhatt were recognized by the National Law Review (NLR) as a "Go-To Thought Leaders" for "their ongoing coverage of COVID-19 PPP (Payroll Protection Program) loan forgiveness requirements and rules." The NLR also noted that the three attorneys "have tirelessly covered the ever-shifting status quo of PPP loans, providing clarity on the more nebulous and confusing elements of coronavirus relief."

The National Law Review's "Go-To Thought Leadership Awards" recognize 87 exceptional legal authors in practice areas ranging from Aviation Law to Tribal Law. Award recipients were selected from a pool of more than 14,000 legal news articles published by the NLR in 2021. Award recipients contributed timely and well-thought-out legal news that were well read, regularly quoted or cited by other media. With the high volume of content the NLR publishes, the selected authors and organizations are truly "Go-To Thought Leaders" in their areas of expertise. Less than 1 percent of authors on NLR receive this award.
