

John Carroll and Leo Caseria Selected for Leadership Roles in the American Bar Association Antitrust Law Section

American Bar Association

06.07.2022

Sheppard Mullin Washington, D.C. antitrust partners John Carroll and Leo Caseria were re-elected to leadership roles in the American Bar Association (ABA) Antitrust Law Section for the 2022-2023 Section year. Carroll will continue serving as Vice Chair of the Section's Media and Technology Committee and Caseria will continue serving as Co-Chair of the Section's Books & Treatises Publication Committee.

The ABA Antitrust Law Section, co-founded by Sheppard Mullin name partner Gordon Hampton in the 1950s, is now the world's leading community of competition, consumer protection, and data privacy professionals.

Attorneys

John D. Carroll

Leo Caseria

Practice Areas

Antitrust and Competition