Alpha Media, the largest privately-held broadcast company in the U.S. that operates more than 200 radio stations with a weekly audience of about 11 million in 44 communities, filed for Chapter 11 protection on January 25 with a prepackaged plan to overcome COVID-19 "headwinds" and recapitalize $267 million in debt.

The Sheppard Mullin team serving as Alpha Media's lead restructuring counsel includes partners Justin Bernbrock and Amanda Cottrell and associates Bryan Uelk, Mikela Sutrina, and Colin Davidson.
